4.a. Rationale

The percentage of students who are recognized to complete primary school is an indicator of a school system's ability to retain students; indirectly reflect the dropout rate. Percentage of accredited students who complete elementary education measures the sustainability of literacy.

4.c. Method of computation

Method of computation

Công thức tính:

$$\text{Tỷ lệ học sinh được công nhận hoàn thành chương trình tiểu học (\%)} = \frac{\text{Số học sinh được công nhận hoàn thành chương trình tiểu học năm học t}}{\text{Số học sinh học lớp 5 cuối năm học t}} \times 100$$

5. Data availability and disaggregation

General data and disaggregated data for 2019.

(Published source: 2020 national report on 5-year progress towards implementation of sustainable development goals. Data from the Ministry of Education and Training)

6. Comparability/deviation from international standards

The indicator "Percentage of students recognized to complete primary school" is one of Vietnam's indicators to reflect the global sustainable development target " 4.1.1: Proportion of children and young people: (a) in grades 2/3; (b) at the end of primary; and (c) at the end of lower secondary achieving at least a minimum proficiency level in (i) reading and (ii) mathematics, by sex"

However, the indicator does not guarantee global comparability because the content, scope and calculation method of Vietnam are not the same as the global standard.
